March Traditional Tale: Three Billy Goats Gruff

Dear Parents / Carers,

The traditional tale of the month in March is the Three Billy Goats Gruff. Please support your child by reading some different versions of the story of Three Billy Goats Gruff. They may enjoy trying to find this traditional tale in a local library or bringing in some Three Billy Goats Gruff texts to share at school. If your child brings a book into school, please label it with their name and we will make sure it is returned by the end of the month. There are some different examples of different versions of the story on the next page of this letter.

In school, the children will be learning to orally re-tell the story by heart. They may like to teach you the story or act it out using the story map.

The Three Billy Goats Gruff Story Map

Below you will find some suggested activities your child may want to complete after reading some different versions of the story:

- Retell the story using finger puppets
- Create lists of favourite versions of the story
- Draw and label characters
- Act out the story

Thank you for all of your support in helping us to show children the pleasures that reading brings!

Kind Regards,
The English Team
