

Who is this and what key characteristics does he possess?

CHAMPIONS TROPHY

What a choke!

STUMPED... third umpire gave Ian Bell out as India's MS Dhoni whipped off bails but TV pictures did not look conclusive as dejected England (above) lost

ENGLAND CRACK UNDER PRESSURE OF THE FINAL

By JOHN ETHERIDGE

ALASTAIR COOK'S dreams of making history were shattered after his England team choked under pressure.

They lost the ICC Champions Trophy final to India by just five runs at rain-hit Edgbaston and Cook admitted: "This is my lowest moment as an England captain."

"We had high hopes coming in of achieving something very special and this is a

Turn to Page 49

Master Ahmer

L.I.: To strike a ball effectively using a defending stroke.

L.I.: To field with increased accuracy

Master Sheldon

A young boy in a teal t-shirt and dark shorts is captured in the middle of a bowling action on an outdoor asphalt court. He is holding a yellow bowling ball high in his right hand, with his left arm extended forward for balance. A yellow bowling pin stands upright on the court near a white bucket. In the background, two other boys in yellow shirts are watching, and a wooden fence and trees are visible beyond the court.

Master
Shafi

L.I.: To develop the range and consistency of a bowling action.

